
Hale and Dorr Adopts Every Day Casual Dress Policy

NOVEMBER 1, 1999

Acknowledging a trend that has prevailed in the corporate culture of our primary client base, Hale and Dorr's Executive Committee voted in November 1999 to make every day casual day at Hale and Dorr. Taking the legal community by surprise, the new dress policy has been enthusiastically embraced. News of the new policy quickly spread throughout the legal community and resulted in several other law firms "following suit".
