
Legal Times Names William McLucas a “Leading Lawyer” for Corporate Governance

2008-03-27

William McLucas, chair of WilmerHale’s Securities Department, was named one of only seven “Leading Lawyers” in Corporate Governance in the March 24, 2008 issue of Legal Times. Mr. McLucas is recognized as one of the most sought-after advisors to a vast range of public companies, boards of directors and special committees dealing with corporate crises and related issues.

The Legal Times feature quotes Robert Fatovic, executive vice president and chief legal officer of Ryder System Inc.: “Bill McLucas is the type of guy you go to when it’s crunch time. No matter what the situation, no matter how complex, he’s a great thinker and a regular guy who has a practical way of solving problems.”

In 2003, Mr. McLucas enjoyed his first recognition by the Legal Times as the “Leading Lawyer” in the areas of securities and corporate governance. Click here to view his most recent Legal Times feature.
