

Mark Polebaum Becomes a Fellow of American College of Bankruptcy

2004-04-18

Hale and Dorr attorney Mark N. Polebaum was inducted as a fellow of the American College of Bankruptcy, an honorary professional and educational association of bankruptcy and solvency professionals.

Polebaum is one of 44 nominees from the United States and abroad who were inducted in the Eleventh Class of College Fellows. All were honored and recognized for their professional excellence and exceptional contributions to the fields of bankruptcy and insolvency.

The American College of Bankruptcy plays an important role in sustaining professional excellence in this rapidly expanding field of expertise. College fellows include commercial and consumer bankruptcy attorneys, insolvency accountants, turnaround and workout specialists, law professors, judges, government officials and others involved in the bankruptcy and insolvency community. Polebaum has considerable experience in these areas and in corporate reorganization, secured and unsecured lending and the Uniform Commercial Code.

Polebaum is a summa cum laude graduate of Middlebury College. He received a J.D. degree from the New York University School of Law.
