Michael Mugmon Named to the Daily Journal's "Top 20 Under 40" List

2013-03-06

Partner Michael Mugmon was named to the Daily Journal's prestigious "Top 20 Under 40" list for California. Identified for his distinguished securities practice, Mugmon was one of 20 lawyers, under the age of 40, selected for his service to clients and impact on the legal industry.

Mugmon's practice is focused on complex commercial litigation, securities litigation and government enforcement actions and investigations. He represents public companies, officers and directors, investment firms, accounting firms and broker-dealers in litigation in state and federal courts and in proceedings before the US Securities and Exchange Commission, the US Attorney's Office, and the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority. Mugmon has experience in matters related to financial fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, accounting irregularities and insider trading. He is a founding member of WilmerHale's Palo Alto Securities practice.

The Daily Journal considered hundreds of lawyers throughout California and across every major practice, to come up with a list of the 20 top rising star lawyers. The Daily Journal featured Mugmon in its February 27 issue.
