Partner Lori Martin Elected to American Law Institute's Council

2013-05-22

Recently, Partner Lori Martin was elected to the American Law Institute's (ALI) Council, a group of prominent judges, lawyers and legal scholars who serve as the governing body for the US-based organization. This leading independent party produces scholarly work to clarify, modernize and improve the law.

ALI members have the opportunity to influence the development of the law in both existing and emerging areas, to work with other lawyers, judges and academics, to give back to a profession in which they are deeply dedicated and to contribute to the public good.

Martin, one out of only five new ALI Council members, is a partner in WilmerHale's Securities and Litigation/Controversy Departments. Her practice focuses on litigation and regulatory proceedings involving investment advisers, open and closed-end investment companies, hedge funds and broker dealers offering investment advisory services.
