
The American Lawyer Once Again Ranks The Firm as a Top 20 Elite Firm

2005-09-05

WilmerHale has once again placed among the elite in The American Lawyer's "A-List." The firm earned a number 12 spot, making it a top 20 US law firm for the third consecutive year.

The American Lawyer's September 2005 cover story highlights the "A-List" rankings. The list recognizes the top 20 US law firms based on results in four categories: revenue per lawyer, pro bono, associate satisfaction, and diversity. The law firms were drawn from The American Lawyer's data collected from their annual "Am Law 200," pro bono, associate satisfaction surveys, and the "Diversity Scorecard" compiled by their sibling publication, Minority Law Journal.
