
The Hill Names WilmerHale Partner Jonathan Yarowsky to “Top Lobbyists 2013” List

2013-11-04

WilmerHale Partner Jonathan Yarowsky was included in the “Top Lobbyists 2013” listing recently published by The Hill newspaper. For nearly a decade, The Hill has released an annual “Top Lobbyists” list recognizing the top players in Washington who “are working day in and day out to influence federal policy.” Those included on the list are recognized for having “risen to the top” of their profession.

Yarowsky has frequently been included in past “Top Lobbyists” annual listings and this year was named to the “hired gun” category. The Hill identifies “hired guns” as those who have “proven to clients that they can shape the agenda on Capitol Hill.”

Yarowsky joined WilmerHale in 2013 to further expand the firm's public policy and government relations capabilities as a member of the firm's Strategic Response Group. He provides strategic advice to clients in an array of areas including antitrust, telecommunications policy, intellectual property, and administrative practice and procedure.
