
WilmerHale Among China's Top Firms for Antitrust and Competition

AUGUST, 26, 2014

Each year the China Business Law Journal ranks the top law firms in numerous practices. This year WilmerHale ranked under the Competition & Antitrust category. In Beijing, work specifically includes advising healthcare providers and payers on the full spectrum of antitrust jurisdictions where they do business.

WilmerHale's leading Antitrust and Competition Practice is recognized beyond China in the United States and Europe, providing international coverage to meet client needs. The firm has compiled a remarkable record of resolving antitrust claims through summary disposition, at trial and on appeal. The group of more than 70 lawyers represents clients across a broad range of industries in all aspects of their business.

WilmerHale's Beijing office was established in 2004 and brought a whole new depth and scope of service to the firm.
