

WilmerHale Attorneys Named Massachusetts Super Lawyers

2004-11-01

The inaugural 2004 edition of Massachusetts Super Lawyers identified eighty-nine WilmerHale attorneys as outstanding members of their profession. This honor is awarded to only 5 percent of the bar.

The selection process for becoming a Super Lawyer, which has been developed over 13 years, involves polling lawyers across the state, independent research, screening of nominees, interviews with law firms, fact checking and a blue-ribbon panel review. Super Lawyers magazines are also published in other states across the country including Texas, California, Pennsylvania, Georgia, Minnesota, Washington, Ohio and Indiana.
