
WilmerHale Attorneys Named Rising Stars by Massachusetts Super Lawyers

2005-05-11

Massachusetts Super Lawyers recently named twenty-nine WilmerHale attorneys to its 2005 Massachusetts Rising Stars list. Super Lawyers' Rising Stars are selected as the up-and-coming attorneys in their respective practice areas by their peers and verified by the attorney-led research staff at Law & Politics.

The Rising Stars list includes both private practice attorneys and attorneys in non-private practice areas such as prosecutors, in-house counsel, judges and public service lawyers. Approximately 2.5 percent of the best up-and-coming attorneys in the state make the final list. To ensure a diverse and well-balanced list, the research staff considers factors such as firm size, practice area and geographic location.
