
WilmerHale Named To IP Super League

2006-05-26

WilmerHale is among an elite group of law firms featured in the first IP Super League feature, to appear in Practical Law Company's PLC Cross-border Quarterly. The July issue will include the top 20 IP legal practices around the world and a review of developments in the IP legal market over the past year.

When compiling the list of firms, PLC took into account both the firms' and the individual practitioners' rankings as they appeared in the latest PLC IP & IT Cross-Border Handbook. In this 2006/7 edition, WilmerHale ranked as the leading firm for IP in Boston, and was highly recommended for patent litigation on a national level in the US and also recommended for patent litigation on a national level in England. Individual WilmerHale lawyers ranked in the guide include: Robert Barry recommended for patent litigation in England; Bill Lee ranked as "leading" for IP in Boston and "leading" for patent litigation in the US, and David Bassett and Wayne Stoner recommended for IP in Boston.
