
WilmerHale Recognized in Inaugural Edition of Chambers Europe

2007-01-17

The inaugural edition of Chambers Europe recognizes WilmerHale in six practice areas and names thirteen of its lawyers as “Leaders in their Field.” Chambers bases its rankings on the market research that helps determine the level of client service, commercial awareness, technical legal ability, professional conduct, commitment, and diligence as well as additional qualities in which clients deem relevant.

Chambers Europe 2007 acknowledges the following WilmerHale practices for exceptional standing in the region listed alongside the practice area: Competition/Antitrust (Belgium and Germany); Competition/European Law (London); Dispute Resolution: General (Pan-European); Regulatory: Telecommunications Media & Technology (Pan-European); Telecommunications Media & Technology (Belgium); and WTO/International Trade (Pan-European).

The following list of WilmerHale lawyers – organized by the practice area(s) and the country in which he/she was recommended – are ranked as “Leaders in Their Field”:

Competition/Antitrust

(Belgium) Christian Duvernoy, Thomas Mueller, John Ratliff, Sven Volcker

(Germany) Jan Heithecker, Ulrich Quack

Competition/Antitrust WTO/International Trade

(Belgium) Marco Bronckers, Claus-Dieter Ehlermann, Natalie McNelis

Competition/European Law

(UK) Suyong Kim

Dispute Resolution: International Arbitration

(UK) Gary B. Born, Steven Finizio

Regulatory: Telecommunications Media & Technology

(Belgium)Yves E. Van Gerven

Chambers Europe's research covers all major jurisdictions throughout Europe. The leading international law firms and leading individuals are ranked in the principal areas of law in each country. Chambers Europe 2007 results, including rankings and editorial, will be launched in hard copy and on the Chambers & Partners website in April 2007.