
WilmerHale Reps Startup Yoshi in $13.7M Series A Round Led by General Motors Ventures and ExxonMobil

FEBRUARY 8, 2018

On February 7, 2018, Yoshi, Inc., which provides subscription service for on-site car maintenance and gas delivery, announced that it closed $13.7 million in Series A funding to further accelerate its rapid growth. General Motors Ventures and ExxonMobil led Yoshi's Series A round of funding, with Y Combinator, Kevin Durant & Rich Kleiman (The Durant Company), Arab Angel and others also participating. Yoshi will use the funds to accelerate its geographic expansion: the company currently serves five metro areas, with plans to expand to an additional 25 in the coming year.

WilmerHale's Peter Buckland and Jaclyn Ammon represented Yoshi in this transaction.

View Yoshi's full release and blog post about this announcement.