
WilmerHale Wins Burton Law Firm Publication Award

2006-05-01

WilmerHale was selected to receive one of only 10 Best Law Firm Publication Awards given by the Burton Foundation for 2006. The Burton Awards, given in association with the Library of Congress and the Law Library of Congress, honor lawyers and law students who demonstrate excellence in legal writing.

The firm was selected for its 2005 IPO Report, 2005 Venture Capital Report and 2005 M&A Report. These annual reports include market reviews, commentary and guidance, including statistics and rankings that are referenced throughout the business community. They are widely distributed and available in electronic form at www.wilmerhale.com.

The Burton Foundation is a national program dedicated to refining and enriching legal writing. Please click here to learn more.
