
Context Is Everything: Evaluating Different Approaches Toward Attorneys' Fees Awards Under Copyright Act in Light of Supreme Court Review

APRIL 12, 2016

An article by Natalie Hanlon Leh and Laura Goodall, published in Bloomberg BNA's Patent, Trademark & Copyright Journal, looks at relevant data for attorneys' fees awards in copyright law and provides a comparison and contrast to the attorneys' fees award standards and considerations in patent and trademark law.

The Supreme Court recently granted certiorari to address the circuit splits regarding the appropriate standard for awarding attorneys' fees to prevailing parties in copyright cases. Read the full article.
