

Practice Tips for Patentees Asserting Method-of-Treatment Claims Involving Divided Infringement

APRIL 3, 2017

In this article published by BNA's Patent, Trademark and Copyright Journal, Kevin Prussia, Jamie Wisz and Steven Horn detail tips for patentees asserting method-of-treatment claims involving divided infringement.

Do physicians "condition participation" of drug therapy based on patients' compliance with drug manufacturer instructions regarding how to take drugs? Do physicians withhold medically necessary drug therapy from patients when patients fail or refuse to take a drug in accordance with the instructions in the label? Read the full article.
