

International Arbitration and Forum Selection Agreements: Drafting and Enforcing (Fourth Edition)

2013-05-30

We are pleased to announce the publication of Gary Born's latest work on international arbitration and dispute resolution.

International Arbitration and Forum Selection Agreements: Drafting and Enforcing is a concise, practical primer on the fundamentals of drafting and enforcing international arbitration agreements and other dispute resolution clauses. Drawing on a wealth of practical experience and academic analysis, this extensively revised and expanded fourth edition offers model arbitration and forum selection clauses for international contracts and explains the advantages and disadvantages of different approaches. The book is an essential resource for any international practitioner or corporate counsel engaged in international matters.

Reviews:

“Once again, Gary Born has tackled a canvas of daunting proportions with the surest of touches. The result is an authoritative and comprehensive work to which users of arbitration can refer with every confidence.”

John Beechey, Chairman, ICC International Court of Arbitration

“The book is a masterful combination of sound analysis and clear exposition.”

Professor William W. Park, President-Elect, London Court of International Arbitration

“Gary Born’s Fourth Edition of International Arbitration and Forum Selection Agreements: Drafting and Enforcing is both brilliant in its depth and incredibly practical and utilitarian in its efficient considerations. This singular work is at its core a profound insight into conflict risk management.”

William K. Slate II, President and CEO, American Arbitration Association

“A splendid and truly international guide to drafting arbitration and forum selection clauses. Written in clear and concise terms, it provides a wealth of practical insight for both lawyers and businessmen involved in international business transactions.”

Professor Michael Pryles, Chairman, Singapore International Arbitration Centre
