

---

Revised Processing Procedures for the Adjustment of Status Applications Introduced by USCIS

2007-07-18

On July 17, 2007, the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) announced that, effective immediately, it will begin to accept employment-based applications to adjust status from aliens whose priority dates are current under the July Visa Bulletin, No. 107. Applications filed no later than August 17, 2007, will be accepted. The current fee schedule will apply to all applications filed pursuant thereto. For full text of the USCIS announcement, please click here.

For more information on this or any other immigration matter, please contact one of the authors listed above.