
The New York Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards: A Commentary

2012-11-01

The continuing growth in the popularity of international arbitration makes the field increasingly important to practitioners, in-house lawyers, judges, students and others. The New York Convention is central to the law and practice of international arbitration. This book offers a comprehensive analysis of the Convention, with a clear, article-by-article structure that quickly guides readers to specific areas of inquiry and provides thorough treatment of both international case law and academic analysis.

The publication of The New York Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards: A Commentary includes contributions from Special Counsel at WilmerHale, Dr Maxi Scherer and can be ordered online for residents in the US, UK and Commonwealth countries or, for others, via an order form.

Authors

Professor Dr. Maxi Scherer

SPECIAL COUNSEL

maxi.scherer@wilmerhale.com

+44 (0)20 7872 1067