ANDREA.SORRENTINO@WILMERHALE.COM

Andrea Sorrentino's practice focuses on all aspects of corporate law. She represents public and private companies in a variety of industries, including technology, life sciences and financial services.

Ms. Sorrentino was a summer associate at WilmerHale in 2014. Prior to joining the firm, she was a legal intern in the Public Integrity Division of the Massachusetts Attorney General's Office, where she researched and drafted memoranda on procedural and substantive matters, including selective prosecution, professional responsibility and campaign finance issues. She also analyzed public corruption cases to identify factors that contributed to successful dispositions.

Previously, Ms. Sorrentino was a paralegal and a legal intern at two boutique law firms in New York, and an intern with the Free Legal Advice Centre in Dublin, Ireland.
