

Cristina Salcedo

COUNSEL

LOS ANGELES
+ 1 213 443 5412
CRISTINA.SALCEDO@WILMERHALE.COM

Cristina Salcedo's practice focuses on a variety of complex litigation. She has represented leading technology innovators and financial institutions in antitrust, class action, false advertising, and IP matters brought in federal district and appellate courts. Ms. Salcedo's experience encompasses all phases of litigation, including the initial investigation, fact development, pleadings, injunctions, discovery, expert reports, depositions, appeals, and multiple jury and bench trials.

Prior to joining WilmerHale, she served as a judicial extern for the Honorable Judge Philip S. Gutierrez, Chief Judge of the United States District Court for the Central District of California.

Publications

- Cristina Salcedo, Returning to Roe: The Renewed Promise of Whole Woman's Health, 50 Loy. L.A. L. Rev. 297 (2017).

Solutions

Commercial Litigation

Government and Regulatory Litigation

Litigation

Credentials

EDUCATION

JD, Loyola Law School, 2017

cum laude

Order of the Coif, Hugh & Hazel

Darling Scholarship, St.

Thomas More Law Honor

Society, Technical Editor, Loyola

of Los Angeles Law Review

BA, Political Science, California

State University, Northridge,

2013

ADMISSIONS

California