Dino Wu represents sell-side and buy-side clients in negotiating trading agreements, including derivatives master agreements and confirmations, futures and options agreements, OTC clearing agreements, prime brokerage agreements, term commitments, netting arrangements, custody and account control agreements, electronic services agreements, master repurchase agreements and securities lending agreements. Mr. Wu has extensive experience with all agreements relating to futures and derivatives, cleared and uncleared, including ISDA master agreements, central clearing documentation, segregated collateral arrangements and confirmations of equity, credit, fixed income, foreign exchange and commodities derivative transactions. He also regularly assists clients in complying with regulations relating to derivatives, including Dodd-Frank and EMIR.

Mr. Wu also represents corporate clients in their equity derivatives transactions, including accelerated share repurchases and forward share repurchases and sales, call spreads and capped calls. In addition, he advises corporate clients regarding ISDA master agreements, interest rate swaps and foreign exchange hedging.

Mr. Wu previously was a corporate associate at Davis Polk & Wardwell in New York, where he represented broker-dealers, hedge funds, investment advisers, and other financial institutions in corporate, securities, regulatory and compliance matters.

Upon graduating from law school, Mr. Wu completed clerkships with both the Honorable Jane R. Roth of the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit and the Honorable Mark L. Wolf of the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts.
