GOLO.WEIDMANN@WILMERHALE.COM

Dr. Golo Weidmann advises and represents German and international clients in all areas of collective and individual employment law. His particular focus lies in employment law-related advice and drafting of contracts during transactions and business restructurings. This includes advice on questions of co-determination, dealing with a European works council and company pension schemes. Furthermore, he counsels clients on compliance matters.

Dr. Weidmann represents employers before courts and in non-contentious matters against employees, works councils and authorities. This includes the negotiation of works agreements and conciliation of interests and social plans.

In addition, Dr. Weidmann advises managing directors and board members in all aspects of their employment's service agreement and social insurance issues prior to termination.

Dr. Weidmann regularly publishes articles in journals and the daily press and gives lectures on employment law subjects.

Professional Activities

Dr. Weidmann is a member of the German-Italian Lawyers Association and the European Employment Lawyers Association (EELA).
