Experience

Recent Highlights

Mr. Millar represented the debtors in a Chapter 11 case of a provider of Internet access and web hosting services with approximately $4 billion in debt that liquidated most of its assets, resolved several litigations and confirmed a liquidating plan of reorganization with meaningful recoveries for unsecured creditors within a year of the filing. Mr. Millar continues to work on this case in the post-confirmation wind down process. He has also represented a major telecommunications company in several recent telecommunications bankruptcy cases and related litigation.
