Meghan E. Kaler focuses her practice on securities litigation and enforcement.

While pursuing her law degree, Ms. Kaler served as a judicial intern for the Honorable Ellen S. Huvelle of the US District Court for the District of Columbia. She joined the firm in 2014 as a summer associate in the Washington DC office.

Prior to law school, Ms. Kaler worked as press secretary for Senator (then Congressman) Joe Donnelly. Ms. Kaler has also served as an intern at the American Constitution Society for Law and Policy, and for Senator Ted Kennedy at the Health Office of the HELP Senate Committee. She was also a parliamentary research assistant for Kerry McCarthy, member of the UK Parliament's House of Commons.
