

Meghan M. Walsh

COUNSEL

BOSTON

+ 1 617 526 6132

MEGHAN.WALSH@WILMERHALE.COM

Meghan Walsh has experience with corporate transactions, including taxable and tax-free mergers and acquisitions, public offerings, and lending and financing transactions, as well as federal and state tax matters and controversies. Ms. Walsh also has experience with executive compensation matters, including equity compensation, incentive plans and golden parachute issues. Ms. Walsh's practice also includes advising tax-exempt organizations, including with respect to obtaining and maintaining tax-exempt status.

During law school, Ms. Walsh was a summer clinical fellow in the Predatory Lending/Consumer Protection Clinic at the WilmerHale Legal Services Center. Ms. Walsh has also interned at the Massachusetts Law Reform Institute's CORI Project and at Suffolk County Juvenile Court.

Professional Activities

Ms. Walsh currently serves on the board of trustees of a private, non-profit high school.

Solutions

Tax

Executive Compensation and Employee Benefits

Credentials

EDUCATION

LLM, Georgetown University
Law Center, 2010

with distinction, Taxation

Senior Symposium Editor, The State and Local Tax Lawyer

JD, Georgetown University
Law Center, 2009

cum laude

Publications Editor, The Tax Lawyer

BA, Brandeis University, 2006

magna cum laude, Psychology

ADMISSIONS

Massachusetts