Michael Zalosh is a DA&I attorney on the firm's WilmerHale DiscoverySolutions team, focused on substantive and strategic areas of discovery for Litigation/Controversy matters. He joined the firm in 2006.

Mr. Zalosh focuses his practice on issues of e-discovery. Specifically, he works with other attorneys, litigation support coordinators, and paralegals in order to provide efficient and cost effective discovery in litigations and investigations. Senior staff attorneys on these teams manage matters to create smarter document review processes through strategic and tactical work from preservation to collection and through review and production. In this role they utilize the firm's internal review software as well as e-discovery vendors' review and analytical tools.

In 2004, Mr. Zalosh worked as a contract attorney for both WilmerHale and another Boston firm, where he performed e-discovery for commercial and construction litigation matters. Previously, he was a general litigation and commercial litigation associate with several firms in the Boston area. He has handled all aspects of trial preparation and has represented clients in district and superior courts.
