

Michelle L. Keast-Nachtrab

SENIOR ASSOCIATE

---

DENVER

+ 1 720 274 3148

MICHELLE.KEAST-NACHTRAB@WILMERHALE.COM

Michelle Keast-Nachtrab is a litigator who represents clients in highly complex and sensitive matters. She has experience across a variety of industries and advises on complicated issues and high-stakes decisions. Ms. Keast-Nachtrab was a summer associate at WilmerHale in 2017.

Prior to joining WilmerHale, Ms. Keast-Nachtrab was a legal and legislative intern for the Colorado Attorney General's Office, a legal intern at the Rocky Mountain Children's Law Center, and a legal intern for the Honorable Robert E. Blackburn of the United States District Court for the District of Colorado.

Ms. Keast-Nachtrab is a reserve major in the Air Force Office of Special Investigations (AFOSI). She was previously a detachment commander and special agent, overseeing all AFOSI criminal, fraud and counterintelligence investigations and operations at three geographically separate units covering several Department of Defense critical assets; and a case review officer, ensuring quality investigative support to several units.

---

Solutions

Government and Regulatory Litigation

White Collar Defense and Investigations

Litigation

Trials

---

Recognition

- Selected by peers for inclusion Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch for administrative / regulatory law (2024).

---

Credentials

EDUCATION

JD, University of Denver Sturm
College of Law, 2018

Production Editor, Denver Law Review

BS, Meteorology, minors in Mathematics and Political Science, Saint Louis University, 2005

magna cum laude

ADMISSIONS

Colorado