Myles McDonagh represents a wide range of clients in complex litigation matters. He was a summer associate at WilmerHale in 2015.

Prior to joining the firm, Mr. McDonagh served as a clinical intern with the United States Attorney's Office in Boston and a legal intern with the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA), Office of Chief Counsel. While with the DEA, Mr. McDonagh wrote a report analyzing the viability of a claim under both the Federal Tort Claims Act and state law. He also contributed to an administrative motion for summary judgment concerning an equal employment opportunity claim.
