Samriti Madan focuses her practice on complex securities enforcement and litigation matters. She was a summer associate at WilmerHale in 2016.

Prior to rejoining the firm, Ms. Madan clerked for the Honorable J. Frederick Motz of the US District Court for the District of Maryland. She was also a student mediator for the University of Maryland Francis King Carey School of Law Mediation Clinic, where she managed and mediated pre-trial and day-of-trial cases and trained elementary and middle school students to become peer mediators.

During law school, Ms. Madan was a law clerk for the Baltimore City Law Department.
