Tingting Liu is a corporate lawyer with substantial experience handling outbound and inbound transactions, as well as regulatory matters, for a variety of Chinese and international clients. She represents major Chinese state-owned enterprises in acquisitions in the US and Europe and counsels multinationals and startups in their strategic expansion in China. She also advises foreign companies and trade associations on regulatory issues including antitrust, data privacy, FCPA compliance, licensing and registration, and trade and investment regulations. Ms. Liu is also experienced in advising foreign non-governmental organizations in establishing a presence and conducting activities in China.

Ms. Liu received her LLM degrees from both the University of Pennsylvania School of Law and the University of Hong Kong. She received her LLB from East China University of Political Science and Law with honors. She is a member of the New York bar.

Prior to joining WilmerHale, Ms. Liu worked in Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP's Beijing office focusing on US capital markets. She also worked in Milbank Tweed Hadley & McCloy LLP's Hong Kong office on capital markets and project finance.

Ms. Liu is a native Mandarin speaker and is fluent in English.
