Vikram Iyer represents a variety of clients in complex litigation matters, including intellectual property litigation. Mr. Iyer was a summer associate at WilmerHale in 2016.

While pursuing his law degree, Mr. Iyer researched domestic civil procedure standards included in the Reporter's Notes for American Law Institute's Restatement (Fourth) of Foreign Relations Law: Jurisdiction. He volunteered as a student advocate, providing legal assistance to students with disabilities and the local indigent population. Mr. Iyer also coached and continues to coach UCLA's undergraduate mock trial team.
