Brussels/EU

Our experienced team helps clients from around the globe navigate the complex world of EU law, regulation and policy.

WilmerHale's experienced Brussels team helps clients from all over the world and a wide range of industries navigate the complex world of EU law, regulation and policy, particularly when they face European Commission competition law procedures and European Court proceedings of any kind.

Our experienced Brussels team works closely with colleagues in Berlin, Frankfurt, London and our US offices to assist clients with EU merger clearance proceedings, European Commission (EC) antitrust and competition investigations, litigation in the European Courts in Luxembourg, EU State aid issues, global trade and investment policy disputes, EU regulatory issues, corporate transactions, cross-border crisis management and strategic response, litigation in the national courts of the EU Member States and—most recently—adapting to Brexit.

WilmerHale's Brussels team consists of experienced lawyers from across the European Union who bring deep insight into the way issues are handled by the EU institutions and in various national jurisdictions. The group operates fluently in English, French, Dutch, German and Spanish, and several members of the group speak other European languages.
