

AAA-ICDR: Arbitrating Aerospace, Aviation and National Security Disputes

APRIL 26, 2018

Join the AAA-ICDRSM for Arbitrating Aerospace, Aviation and National Security Disputes on April 26, 2018 in Washington DC—a morning conference focusing on topics related to the arbitration of aerospace, aviation and national security (AANS).

A panel of experienced arbitration practitioners, including members of the AAA-ICDR's AANS Panel of Arbitrators, will discuss the following topics:

- The suitability of arbitration for use in AANS disputes
- Issues of confidentiality, limited discovery, and implications for clause drafting
- Implications of technology-intensive disputes
- And more...

WilmerHale Partner Rachael Kent will speak on the panel "Arbitrating AANS Disputes." This panel will discuss the suitability of arbitration for use in AANS disputes. Among other things, the panel will take up issues of (i) confidentiality, (ii) classified information, (iii) neutral forum, (iv) limited discovery, (v) final, enforceable and transportable awards, and (vi) implications for clause drafting.
