

Crypto Currently: Patent and IP Developments Relating to Blockchain and Crypto

MARCH 1, 2023
VIRTUAL

Join us for an extension of our Crypto Currently Webinar Series as we explore the use of crypto across industries.

During this program, WilmerHale Partner Omar Khan and Counsel Jeffrey Dennhardt, with Partner Tiffany J. Smith as moderator, will discuss current issues and trends related to blockchain and crypto in the intellectual property space.

The panelists will cover the following:

- Overview of patent and patent application activity in blockchain and crypto technologies
- Potential recurring issues in blockchain and crypto patent proceedings
- Recent patent litigation involving blockchain and crypto technologies
- Recent industry and PTO agency activity relating to blockchain and crypto patents

During the webinar, participants will have the opportunity to contribute questions online. CLE credit will be provided.

*CLE credit is not available for those who watch a recording of the webinar.
