

29th Annual Compliance Institute

APRIL 28, 2025
LAS VEGAS, NV

Partner and Co-Chair of the firm's Artificial Intelligence Practice and Cybersecurity and Privacy Practice, Kirk Nahra, will moderate an educational session titled "Key Challenges in Health Care Privacy" at the 29th Annual Compliance Institute, organized by the Health Care Compliance Association (HCCA), taking place April 28–May 1, 2025, in Las Vegas.

In this session, participants will learn about the newest developments in the law of health care privacy, understand how these new laws create challenges for your compliance program and evaluate options for how best to apply these new obligations to their companies.

HCCA's flagship healthcare compliance conference has provided first-class education and networking opportunities to healthcare compliance professionals for nearly three decades.

Participants will learn about regulatory updates, new and emerging issues, and program best practices, and gain insights on key compliance issues from experienced industry leaders.
