

Webinar Recording- COVID-19: Clinical and Legal Considerations for Reopening

As businesses prepare to resume operations, employers face challenges complying with workplace health and safety guidelines. This webinar covers the legal, clinical and practical guidance for reopening in a responsible manner in this uncertain time.

The panel was moderated by WilmerHale Partner Alejandro N. Mayorkas and includes Partner Peggy Otum, Dr. James Merlino, Chief Clinical Transformation Officer at the Cleveland Clinic, and Dr. Richard Waldhorn, a Contributing Scholar at the Johns Hopkins Center for Health Security and a Clinical Professor of Medicine at Georgetown University School of Medicine.
