
Felicia Ellsworth Appointed to Boston Bar Association Amicus Committee

OCTOBER 21 2020

Partner Felicia Ellsworth has been appointed to the Boston Bar Association's (BBA) Amicus Committee. The Amicus Committee works with the BBA's Government Relations Department and Leadership to evaluate and make recommendations concerning requests for submission of amicus briefs.

Ms. Ellsworth is an experienced appellate advocate who combines her significant trial experience with her recognized appellate skill to represent clients at all states of litigation. Her practice focuses on high-stakes disputes in both state and federal trial and appellate courts, including the Supreme Court of the United States.

Ms. Ellsworth has been appointed to the Amicus Committee for a three year term.