
Counsel, Michael Howe, Named Exclusive Winner of Client Choice Award for Arbitration - United Kingdom

OCTOBER 14, 2021

Michael Howe, Counsel in the firm's International Arbitration Group, based in London, has been named the exclusive winner of the Lexology Client Choice Award 2021 for Arbitration in the United Kingdom.

Mr. Howe's practice focuses on complex arbitration and litigation matters. He has represented clients in numerous institutional and ad hoc arbitrations under a wide variety of arbitral rules, including LCIA, ICC, ICDR, UNCITRAL and DIAC. Mr. Howe has a particular focus on international commercial arbitration. He has represented clients from a broad range of industries, with a particular focus on energy, natural resources, manufacturing, financial services and construction. In addition to his arbitration practice, Mr. Howe has a significant litigation practice. A qualified solicitor-advocate, he has represented clients in high-stakes commercial litigation before the English courts and in court proceedings relating to arbitration, including before the UK Supreme Court and courts of other Commonwealth jurisdictions.

Established in 2005, Client Choice recognizes those lawyers around the world who stand apart for the excellent client care and quality of service they provide. The criteria for this recognition focus on an ability to add real value to clients' business above and beyond the other players in the market. To be considered, lawyers must be nominated by corporate counsel and ranked by specific client service criteria. Please see the Client Choice website for further details.
