
WilmerHale Recognized Among Top Crisis & Risk Management Firms Nationwide

JULY 6, 2023

The 2023 edition of Chambers Crisis and Risk Management Guide has ranked WilmerHale among the nation's best crisis management law firms for the second consecutive year. Published by Chambers and Partners, the annual guide employs in-depth research to identify leading crisis response and risk advisory professionals. In addition to the firm's Band 1 ranking—which is the highest designation—Partner Jamie Gorelick was named to the exclusive list of best legal practitioners in the Crisis Management category.

Remarking on WilmerHale's Band 1 ranking, Chambers noted the firm's "prominent reputation for supporting businesses through criminal investigations, including environmental and national security matters." The publication also highlighted WilmerHale's accomplished anti-discrimination practice, which regularly advises clients on compliance, workplace culture and equity issues.

WilmerHale's Crisis Management and Strategic Response Group draws on our lawyers' deep government experience and industry insights to help companies successfully navigate the highest-profile corporate crises. The group utilizes a unique multi-strand response to coordinate a comprehensive and long-lasting approach for even the most challenging problems.
