Courtney A. Murray provides strategic counsel to clients responding to high-profile corporate crises and advises on government investigations and congressional oversight. She began her career at WilmerHale as a summer associate in 2019 and as an associate in 2021. Prior to rejoining the firm as an associate, she was a judicial law clerk for the Honorable Judge Kenneth M. Karas of the US District Court for the Southern District of New York.

In law school, Ms. Murray was a legal extern in the Office of the Legal Adviser at the US Department of State, a summer law clerk in the Criminal Division of the US Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Virginia, and a summer legal intern for the International Legal Foundation in New York. Prior to law school, she worked as a program assistant at a federal government contracting company, and as research intern for the Windham County Office of the Public Defender.
